The old Jacobean house, visible from a bend in the avenue, had an air of fallen fortunes; across the sleepy alleys grass crept undisturbed, and in the old-world gardens old-world flowers stretched up, cramped and cold, to the gaze of the October sun. Beech woods lined the back of the hill on which the house stood; below, in the valley, the river sidled, till the trees in their turn were displaced by gorse, then again by homely arable or quiet-faced pasture.
