Createspace. Paperback. Book Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. Paperback. 328 pages. Dimensions: 8.4in. x 5.8in. x 0.7in. United States Navy officer, Ensign Thorp Karnin, meets a beautiful French woman named Genevieve Blondin in Naples, Italy. Genevieve is on vacation, while Thorp's ship, the USS Spencer, has just docked in port. Captivated by her beauty and charm, they take a quick trip to Capri before his ship leaves port. The two decide to meet up at his next free port in the Mediterranean. The lovers meet again in Cannes, France, but Thorp's ship again goes to sea. Genevieve attempts to keep up her good spirits, but senses that she is pregnant with Thorp's child. She loses hope as news spreads of the USS Spencer's collision with a British merchant ship. The crash results in serious damage and many lives lost. The USS Spencer barely makes it to the port in Gibraltar, where Thorp writes to Genevieve countless times. Before he can find his love in Cannes, Genevieve turns to drastic measures that will change her life and their relationship forever. While Genevieve is fiction, Brocks' experiences in the United States Navy are not. He hopes to entertain readers with the dramatic love story and his military background. Genevieve is available for sale online at Amazon.com and other channels. Genevieve has more action than most movies. The loud crash of the Spencer's collision, Genevieve's heartbreak and tough choice - and the story's conclusion - all echo far beyond the last page.
