WELFARE REFORM: AN ISSUE OVERVIEW (PAPERBACK)

Bibliogov, United States, 2013. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 246 x 189 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .On Thursday, February 13, the House is expected to consider H.R. 4, the Republican leadership bill to reauthorize TANF. The schedule would bypass committee review of the measure, introduced February 4. Except for date changes, the bill is almost identical to the one passed by the House last year (H.R. 4737). It includes concepts advanced by President Bush, including a 40-hour work week for most TANF recipients and a requirement that states eventually engage 70 of recipients in a work activity. The FY2004 budget, sent to Congress February 3, assumes reauthorization of TANF block grants ($16.5 billion annually) for 5 years. The budget proposes to replace Section 8 housing vouchers for low-income families with a block grant to states, to permit states to operate foster care programs with a block grant, to increase the child tax credit from $600 per child to $1,000, effective for tax year 2003, and to establish a voucher program for drug treatment ($200 million annually for 3 years). Since October 1, after the original TANF law expired, TANF and related programs of mandatory child care, transitional medicaid, and abstinence education, have been operating on temporary spending authority, due to expire March 31; the FY2003 Omnibus Appropriation bill passed by the Senate January 23 would continue TANF, on FY2002 terms, through September 30. On December 12, President Bush issued an Executive Order (EO 13729) to implement an expansion of charitable choice principles to virtually all social service programs aimed at helping people in need.
