Createspace, United States, 2009. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 216 x 140 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.One of the most beautiful words in the English language is the word wholeness. It is beautiful because when we are walking in wholeness, our life is a beautiful life. A life of wholeness is a life of security, protection, peace of mind and heart, satisfaction, prosperity in spirit, soul, and body, as well as financially and relationally. Deep inside every one of us we crave to be completely whole, because God created us to be that way - complete and satisfied in every area of our lives. In times past, it seems that Christmas was the only time that some people got a little frazzled over all the extra holiday things that had to be done. Now, it appears that the majority of people find themselves running from one holiday event to another, one special occasion, or business meeting, or special event to another - all year long. Their to do list is virtually endless, and often times, so also is their frustration and anxiety. This was never God's intent for the life of the Believer, or for anyone, for that matter. His intent was and is for us to live a life of peace and tranquillity - a life free from stress, anxiety, worry, and frustration. The question is: How can we really live a life of peace when there is so much to do? In this book, readers can discover how to live the life of peace, healing, and wholeness which God has provided. As you rest in Him, the Lord will restore your soul, bring peace to every area of your life, and fill you with His goodness. He has prepared a place...
