The maximum limits for carrier, messenger, stamper, and junior clerk do not apply to those allowed preference under section 1754, Rev. Stat. 2. CLASSIFICATION--Act, sections 6 and 7, and Postal Rule I. 9 (u) The classification of those in the Post-offices to which the act extends was made into four classes by the Postmaster-General on April 4, 1883. The highest class embraces those who receive an annual compensation of $1,800 or over, and the lowest, those who receive a compensation of $800 or less, but the latter is held by the Commission to include no person employed merely as a laborer or workman. Section 7 of the act declares that no person employed merely as a laborer or workman (shall) be required to be classified hereunder. The classified service does not include any employes not classified in conformity with the act, whatever the duties or positions of such employes, and laborers and workmen are therefore not within the classified postal service. (See letter to the Chicago postmaster of March 12, 1888, Book H, p. 279.) (b) All clerks or persons employed or in the public service at any Post-office or under any postmaster, no matter what their grade or position, are to be counted in determining whether an office has reached as many as fifty employes within the meaning of the act, section 6, and Postal Rule I. (See also Postal Laws and Regulations, section 665.) But section 7 of...
