Brand New Book  Print on Demand .What is a young lady like Loveday Brooke doing in a private detective agency? She s working there, as a clever sleuth, a female Sherlock Holmes of sorts. Excerpts: Loveday Brooke, at this period of her career, was a little over thirty years of age, and could be best described in a series of negations. She was not tall, she was not short; she was not dark, she was not fair; she was neither handsome nor ugly. Her features were altogether nondescript; her one noticeable trait was a habit she had, when absorbed in thought, of dropping her eyelids over her eyes till only a line of eyeball showed, and she appeared to be looking out at the world through a slit, instead of through a window. Her dress was invariably black, and was almost Quaker-like in its neat primness. But what one could say affirmatively about her was that Loveday Brooke was a naturally talented private detective, a chosen career that had cut her off sharply from her former associates and her position in society. She demonstrates her skills in these six short stories: The Black Bag Left on a Door-Step, The Murder at Troyte s Hill, The Redhill Sisterhood, A Princess s Vengeance, Drawn Daggers, The Ghost of Fountain Lane, Missing!.
